NEWSY ITEMS FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Randolph Times: Miss Helen Lamb of the First National bank, is taking her vacation visiting at Dakota City and other points.

Allen News: Mrs. Carrie Green and niece, Genevieve Kautz of Homer, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heckt over Sunday.

Ponca Advocate: James Mahon, living several miles east of Ponca, had a valuable team killed by lightning during the storm Sunday night.

Sioux City Journal, 22: Joe Heene, of Nacora, Neb., topped the handiweight yearling division at $9.25 for 1127-pound horned Herefords. There were 26 head in the consignment.

Walthill Citizen: W. H. Masons and Miss Floy Crew, returned last week from their outing at Arnold's Park. Miss Alice Understahl went to Allen Tuesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Leonard Ball. Miss Dorothy Irby was an over Sunday visitor with her brother, Ed and wife, at Homer.

Wakarusa Republican: August Stolin broke both bones in one arm last Sunday when cranking a Ford car at Crystal lake. J. F. Christensen went to Hubbard Sunday and moved the body of his brother from the Taylor cemetery near that place to the Graceland Park cemetery in Sioux City.

Emerson Enterprise: Mrs. Harry Heikes of Dakota City, is visiting this week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Poole. Mrs. Herman Stolze came home from Sioux City Monday, where she has been with Mr. Stolze since he entered the hospital several days ago for treatment. She reports Mr. Stolze as slowly recovering.

Ponca Journal: Mrs. Anna Pomeroy, of South Sioux City, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fackelman. Mr. and Mrs. George Carter expect to leave Ponca the first of August for their new home in Omaha. Mrs. Dayton Austin and Emery, Helen and Marjorie Austin, attended a Sunday school picnic at Daily Tuesday afternoon.

Pender Times: Harold Crellin received the good news last week from the sheriff of Dakota county that his car was found in a thicket near Crystal lake. Mr. Crellin immediately went up and claimed his property. It was in good condition and was evidently run out there by the parties who "borrowed" it a couple of weeks ago at Crystal lake, and abandoned it. The wearing apparel, left on the seats, was not even touched. It might not be amiss to tell fellows who play jokes of this character that the penitentiary lies at the end of these short roads.

Lyons Mirror: Mrs. W. E. Snethen is visiting at Exeter, Neb. Miss Edna Clayton, of Homer, visited Miss Vernal Willie this week. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Achmeier and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Kohlmeier, Rev.

Freche and Mrs. Wellman of Wakefield, visited with the Guhl and Rieschl families Sunday. Mrs. A. V. Youngquist of Carter, S. D., is visiting her uncle, M. M. Warner. She is accompanied by her two daughters, Ruth and Sarah. She was formerly Miss Florence DeBell, of this place. M. M. Warner and daughter Mary, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Bauer, of Coloma, S. D., Mrs. D. W. Parmelee, of Parmelee, S. D., and Mrs. Charles Thomas, visited the Craig News family Friday.

Sioux City Journal, 24: Fred W. Beermann of Dakota City, Neb., was a market topper on the final hog trade. He trucked in 45 choice hogs averaging 225 pounds, for which he received $10.40. Jeff P. Rockwell, sheriff and deputy sheriff of Dakota county for more than fourteen years, was removed from office Wednesday by Sheriff George Cain. That Deputy Sheriff Rockwell was removed for a "good and sufficient reason" was the only comment that Sheriff Cain would make in regard to the matter. Mr. Rockwell was elected sheriff in 1907, and served two terms of four years each in that capacity. Since then he has served continuously as deputy sheriff. He had been a deputy under Sheriff Cain for three years and six months at the time of his removal. Mr. Rockwell stated that he was given no reason for the dismissal by Sheriff Cain. However, he thought the reason was because he was getting old and Sheriff Cain wanted a younger man. Aside from fourteen years as sheriff and deputy sheriff, Mr. Rockwell served four years as county assessor of Dakota county. Sheriff Cain announced that Melford Lohr, who served eighteen months overseas with the American army, had been appointed deputy sheriff to replace Mr. Rockwell.

Sioux City Journal, 21: Corn whiskey is said to have been the cause of an automobile collision on Dakota avenue near the Catholic school in South Sioux City, Neb., last night, which resulted in the injury of three occupants of the cars. Mrs. John Bachter, of Homer, Neb., and Edith Gasser, 11-year-old daughter of Will Gasser, 717 Jackson street, Sioux City, were the most seriously hurt. Mrs. Bachter received a gash in the cheek three inches long and a cut under the eye. The Gasser girl's hand was severely cut. Both wounds were caused by flying glass from the windshield. Bachter is said to have been to blame for the accident. Gasser was driving his car north on the avenue. When he saw that Bachter did not have control of his car, he brought his machine to a stop at the east side of the pavement, one wheel dropping into the street car track. Bachter's machine crashed headlong into the Gasser car. The impact demolished the front end of both machines despite the fact that the moving car was running only at fifteen miles an hour. Mrs. Gasser, Mrs. J. Cook and two children, who were riding in the rear seat of the Gasser car were unhurt. The two Bachter children were riding in the rear seat of the Bachter car. Chief of Police W. Weston, of South Sioux City, said that Bachter was to blame for the

The Reconstruction of Every Living American to America's Cause.

By COL. F. W. GALBRAITH, JR., All-American Meeting Speech.

There never has been a time in the history of this great country of ours when the need of an understanding among loyal Americans was more needed. Tonight in this great hall and with fifty thousand other loyal Americans outside, we worship at the shrine of America.

We worship here and give answer to those disloyal people who would destroy this country, who would alienate us from our own and from our allies with whom we are cemented by the blood of our fellows. This meeting in itself means more than we know. Tonight we have had messages from every state in this great Union, from organizations, from patriotic men and women who have said, "Thank God that in that great city of New York there is tonight a reconsecration of Americans to this great country and to American ideals."

Tonight we hear the voice of our heroic dead who seem to say, "I have seen the coming of the Lord; fight on, my America, fight on." My friends, this is a night for the reconsecration of every living American to the cause of America.

accident because of his intoxicated condition. Bachter was arrested and charged with reckless driving and intoxication. He is a farmer residing four miles northeast of Homer, Neb. The Gasser child received medical aid at St. Vincent's hospital. Dr. A. J. McArthur attended to the wounds of Mrs. Bachter and the slight wounds of Mr. Bachter, the three victims who were hurt.

Sioux City Journal, 26: Speeders all look alike to Chief of Police Geo. Weston, of South Sioux City, Neb. Sunday he nabbed his nephew, George Dickinson, of Maskell, Neb., and charged him with speeding. Dickinson paid $10 and costs. Five other speeders were arrested in South Sioux City Sunday and forced to give cash bonds to claim their liberty. The act of Ruth and Boz, of Bethlehem, as recorded in the Bible, is to be literally re-enacted by the marriage of Rev. H. Jacobs, formerly of South Sioux City, Neb., and his fiancée, of Bethlehem, Judea, whose name is unknown here, according to a letter received by J. S. Bacon, cashier of the Nebraska State bank, of South Sioux City, from Rev. Mr. Jacobs. The marriage will take place some time this fall. Rev. Mr. Jacobs served as pastor of the Presbyterian church at South Sioux City for two years. Last September he departed on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. On his journey he met his fiancée, whose ancestry dates back for more than 1,000 years in Bethlehem. She was born at the foot of Mt. Carmel, within a stone's throw of where Jesus was born, the minister writes. "She is a chosen vessel in God's hands to be a great blessing to many. She comes of a Christian family more than 1,000 years old. The act of Ruth and Boz is literally re-enacted again. She is a lady of much refinement and many talents. She is musical, a teacher and speaks several languages, including English." Rev. Mr. Jacobs wrote. Rev. Mr. Jacobs is a Christianized Jew. He is 55 years old and his bride-elect is 25. Following their wedding in the Holy Land they will come to the United States to tour the nation from east to west, endeavoring to raise funds to purchase a Hebrew-Christian colony in the Holy Land. Their first campaign will be to raise $25,000. Rev. Mr. Jacobs owns considerable property in South Sioux City.

Farm Bureau Field Notes

C. R. Young, County Agent

Last Saturday a meeting at the court house for farmers and threshermen was called to discuss fair prices for threshing. After discussing the subject, it was determined that 3½ cents per bushel for oats and 7 cents for wheat, with the threshermen to furnish the coal, would be equitable. A motion to that effect passed unanimously.

Hog cholera was found the past week in the L. B. Palmer herd near Hubbard. Mr. Palmer vaccinated at once.

Kanred, the new winter wheat which has made such splendid records in this state, was grown on seven farms in this county during the past season. Men raising this wheat are Dan Hartnett, Fred Nelsen, Frank Uffing and Mike Hurley of Hubbard, and C. H. Maxwell, Chas. S. Bliven, and Fred Kipper of Dakota City. All of these men have had their fields inspected, excepting Mr. Hurley, whose wheat was threshed before the inspector came into the county. This wheat is yielding over 30 bushels per acre excepting one field, which was sown too thin. It is also quite rust resistant and a little earlier than Turkey Red.

We already have a request for a car load of this seed from outside the county, but these men will hold it for a reasonable length of time for their neighbors to buy if they desire it. Do not delay if in need of good seed wheat.

HER COFFIN A TREE TRUNK

Remains of Woman Buried Three Thousand Years Ago Recently Discovered in Danish Field.

Commenting on the discovery in a Danish field of the body of a woman in a petticoat, who died 3,000 years ago, enclosed in a hollowed tree coffin, Prof. Arthur Keith, the eminent anthropologist, writes: Numerous bodies have been found in Denmark buried in the trunks of trees. Some have been discovered in England. Three such bodies were discovered about forty years ago in Yorkshire and are now, I believe, in a museum in that county. The bodies are those of a round-headed people who lived in what is now Denmark some 3,000 years ago. These people invaded England and settled in Yorkshire, and this form of burial is a custom they had. It must have been used only for people of rank or note. The bodies of such dead were wrapped in a cow-hide before burial. They have sometimes been preserved by the nature of the soil. It is likely that this body was discovered in peat. The death of this woman would appear to have occurred late in the Bronze age, certainly before the Iron age.

Fanatical Religious Festival.

The greatest religious festival of the Aissowas, an Arab tribe, is held annually at Kairoon on the Sahara desert about 100 miles from Cairo. During the festivities they have a dance that is torturous to the fanatics who take part. One feature of the dance is piercing the cheeks of the dancers with long steel rods, and also thrusting the rods through fleshy parts of their bodies. The failure of the flow of blood is due to the fervidness with which they pray. Other dancers eat scorpions and ground glass. If they suffer any pain it is not noticeable.

HARROWING

"Don't you think her voice ought to be cultivated?"

"No, I think it should be harnessed."

Way of Escape.

"I wish," said the little invalid who was being washed in bed, "that I need never, never have to be washed again."

"I'm afraid," said mamma, gently, "that as long as you have me to take care of you, you'll have to reconcile yourself to being washed very thoroughly every day."

The invalid pondered for a moment. "Then," said she, "I shall marry early!"—London Tit-Bits.

Tree Has Roots in Rock.

There is a massive tree that grows on the edge of a Missouri bluff and wars with the wind when the weather is rough. The tree grew in a solid bed of rock. It is on the Kellerstross farm, recently purchased by Ivanhoe Masonic lodge. Knotted and twisted roots, exposed, are evidence of under-nourishment during pioneer days.

Keeping Up With the Constituents.

"Of course you try to appear as one of the plain people."

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "but it's getting more and more difficult. You'd be surprised at the number of my constituents who are taking to fancy socks and high-waisted coats."

How to Make Grape Juice

The increased interest in fruit juices has caused the United States Department of Agriculture to issue a farmer's bulletin called "Unfermented Grape Juice—How to Make it in the Home." According to this publication, unfermented grape juice is one of the cheapest, yet one of the best products which can be made from grapes. It requires little or no special equipment for its manufacture, and can be made in conjunction with the preparation of grape jellies, pastes, marmalades, or other products. The bulletin is well illustrated and tells in a straight and simple manner the process of extracting the juice from grapes and bottling or canning it up for future use. Indications point to a fair grape crop in Nebraska this year. Persons interested in making grape juice should ask their county extension agent or write to the College of Agriculture, Lincoln, for a copy of farmer's bulletin 1075.
